WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TO-NIGHT.

At the reception to-night carriages will approach from the north to the east entrance of the White House, opposite the Treasury. Pedestrians will follow the same route. After discharging passengers carriages will be parked around the Ellipse in the White Lot.

The gates will not be open until 9 o'clock. Two carriages will drive under the portecochere at the same time. Coachmen will be provided with numbered checks, which must be preserved by them in order to regain admittance to the grounds. Guests will also be provided with tickets of the same numbers as their carriages. These they should carefully preserve, in order to call their carriages, which will depart from the same entrance. It is requested that the line of carriages be not delayed by paying for the carriage service at the entrance. Carriages will be called by electric signal. After leaving cloaks in the cloakroom guests are requested to fall in line in the colonnade and pass up the main staircase. The southwest gate will be opened at 8:30 p. m. Guests holding special carriage cards will enter the grounds by that gate, and the house by the door under south portico. Carriages will approach this entrance by Seventeenth street
